
FAMILY EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS WORKSHOP

Friday, January 20, 2012
Business Meeting from 9:00 to 9:30
Training/Presentation Time from 9:30 to 12:00
PARADEE Building Dover, Delaware
COST: F R E E !!!

The purpose of this workshop is to encourage families to take action to prepare for future emergencies and disasters in their communities. Ready.gov suggests these three, easy steps to be prepared:

1. Make a Family Emergency Plan.
2. Get an Emergency Supply Kit.
3. Be informed about the different types of emergencies that could occur in your area and their appropriate responses.

Need help with preparing? Please join us for the Family Emergency Preparedness Workshop to share ideas and learn about all the free resources that are available for you and your family.

April Cleveland is a former teacher who is employed by the Public Health Office of Preparedness as a trainer/educator. She currently does outreach for the Office of Preparedness which includes facilitating workshops on various topics and providing outreach materials for flu clinics and other community events.