BUILDING LEARNING OBJECTS IN DLC

The Delaware Learning Center is the State of Delaware's learning management system which was launched in December of 2014. Department of Services for Children, Youth and Their Families (DSCYF) has launched an online learning in March 2015 and completely transition to the learning management system on July 1, 2015. Debra would like to share their experiences and strategies for entering learning objects in the LMS in a manner that will drawing users to the courses you want them to take with little to no instruction.

ABOUT THE PRESENTERS

Debra O'Neal is a Professional Social Worker who joined DSCYF in 1994 as a Master Family Services Specialist providing case management and community probation supervision for youth in the northern county of the state. At times this case work was specialized; monitoring youth in residential placement and school-based probation work. Later in her career, she was promoted to Regional Manager and supervised 4 probation units in New Castle County (DE) and for the past 10 years has been the Training/Education Administrator II within DSCYF. Debra is the unit manager for the Center for Professional Development - providing training and development services for employees within all four divisions within DSCYF.
